New Year on Times Square

Music & lyrics by Walter J. Kin (RIGLI)

Author's current lyrics

VERSE 1

No good movies playing at the Regal tonight
Killing time beneath the flashing neon light
French fries and a soda from the golden arches down the street
Dipping in ranch as the crowd drags its feet
Headphones on staring up at the billboards' glow
I walk these blocks eighteen times a month or so
Never stop to think if I’ve got it good
Just another night in a busy neighborhood

CHORUS

New Year on Times Square
I’m never in the crowd when the crystal ball drops down
New Year on Times Square
They’re screaming ten to one in the giddy countdown

POST-CHORUS

I gaze as Broadway has a blast and shines
So why do I cry when the midnight chimes
Watching strangers in the snow kissing like they know
That love is all we've got here below

New Year on Times Square

Music & lyrics by Walter J. Kin (RIGLI)

Author's current lyrics

BRIDGE

Confetti falling down like a paper storm
Looking at the screen cozy and warm
I survived the lottery I won the race
So why do the tears run down my face

CHORUS

New Year on Times Square
I’m never in the crowd when the crystal ball drops down
New Year on Times Square
They’re screaming ten to one in the giddy countdown

POST-CHORUS

I gaze as Broadway has a blast and shines
So why do I cry when the midnight chimes
Watching strangers in the snow kissing like they know
That love is all we've got here below

OUTRO

French fries and ranch
Happy New Year New York
Happy New Year
Happy New Year New York
Happy New Year New York
Happy New Year New York
Happy New Year